Stand-out style has a new address: 214 Green Street, Brooklyn, NY. One of the most superbly designed and artful new buildings to rise in the borough is now ready to welcome you home.

The high-style of 214 Green starts from the outside, with a façade blending blue tinted windows, dark brick, and a pop of red on the trim that makes it an architectural highlight on the street. But it's what's inside that counts – living spaces that should be found design magazines.

At the heart of each layout is an open-plan living space featuring floor-to-ceiling windows framing Brooklyn-to-Manhattan views, wall-to-wall silk-finish white oak flooring and private outdoor space in the form of a balcony, terrace or yard. Kitchens feature high-end details including an exquisite combination of walnut and white lacquer cabinetry with self-closing drawers and Chroma white countertops that are as durable as they are beautiful.

The refined style continues in the bathrooms which feel inspired by a world-class spa. Special touches include French oak vanities, black porcelain floor tiles, and deep soaking tubs. The bedrooms complete the 360° of design experience with tall entry doors, giant closets, and smooth oak flooring underfoot.

All residents of 214 Green have access to exciting amenities like a roof-top deck providing awe-inspiring views of the Brooklyn and Manhattan skylines and a fitness room that keeps you as streamlined as your apartment. Storage units in the cellar...
